Noes, are you in
your cave?

Yep, what's up?

Noes, we need
your help!

Zowie, since I am curator of the cave of mystery, it must have to do with the Earthling Humans! Is that right?

We'll Noesy Baby, we need for you to find
what the Earthling
Humans call their Hall of Records!

More accurately,
individual history of Earthling Humans!

All of their past lives
including their current one, right?

Right! The Earthling Humans have very little understanding.

Noes, The Balance, the Earthling Humans need to be reminded once
again the epic story.

Here we go! Guess
you need me.

Noes, we are also looking for the
records that include
their thoughts,
actions, words, deeds!

Noes, also included in the records of the Cave Of Mystery are the Earthling Humans essence which is really their energy!

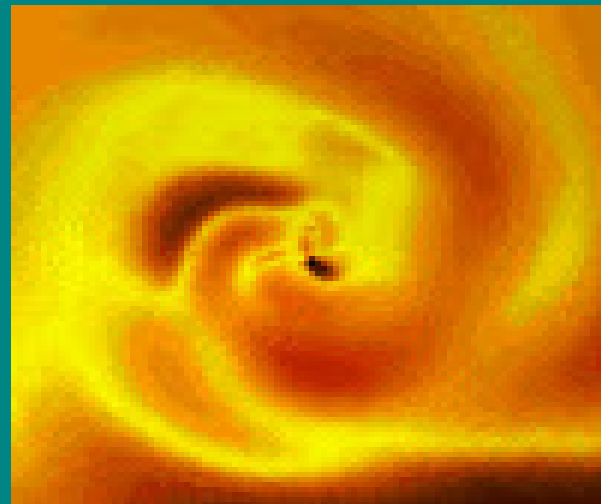

We'll I'd better get myself busy.

Busy doing what?

Noes needs to find the records and don't you have a television in that cave of yours?

Yep, I do have a tv, just take a second, I am what you would call a pack rat.

Noes, coming from The Balance, you are sounding somewhat like a Earthling Human!

Noes, I believe the Earthling Humans have even forgot about you taking care of their records.

Wow, guess I am not important to the Earthling Humans anymore, that's a bumber.

Yes, Noes, you keep up with the documents, that is so important for future lives and the Earthling Humans Karma, whether it be good or bad.

Start the epic story
with the chapter on Henry th dinosaur.

Guess what I found you
two? The television screen. Jeepers, found it in the back.

Hope all of you
Earthling Humans are watching, a chance to learn
your epic story.

EXPLANATION OF STORYLINE

In this chapter, you are being introduced to One, The Balance, and Noes. One and The Balance is a part of nature. These two beings is what keeps our worlde in constant movement. Without constant movement Earthling Humans cannot evolve, and learn our life lessons. One is made of pure energy(the orange vortex). The Balance(the gray sphere)is One's agent and is made of energy and thought, it also directs thought. Within The Balance there is chaos and logic. Chaos contains logic and logic contains chaos. All of this is important when learning about your life lessons and your balance. The Mystery Cave Of Olde Tymes, is the same as the "Hall Of Records," that is so often spoke of when talking about karma. It does exist. Noes, of course is the curator of The Mystery Cave Of Olde Tymes, he wants you to know he never leaves his post, and don't forget him!
